

Your Xmas Dinner

We will have Turkeys

THE FINEST IN NORWICH

Natives and Philadelphia Native Turkeys 40c. Philadelphia will be less.

Mongrel Geese, Duck, Guinea, Broilers, Roasters, Fowl

English Ham and Bacon for Xmas breakfast

Mistletoe, Holly and Wreaths

Casaba, Melons, Dates, Hamburg Grapes, Figs, Satsumas, Persimmons, Pom Granites, Stem Dates, Oranges, Bananas, Fancy Apples

Malaga Grapes, Pines, Good Oranges Cheap

Mix Nuts and Hickorys Italian Chestnuts

Attractive Line of FRESH VEGETABLES

Pascal Celery, White Squash, Cauliflower, Cucumbers, Radish, Beets, Egg Plant, Lettuce, Tomatoes, Sprouts, Squash, Parsnips

SOMERS

MR. H. T. MILLER'S School for Dancing

28 Oak Street, Classes—Saturday—2:15 and 4 p. m. Telephone 1082

You Will Find Excellent Christmas Suggestions for the men who insist on all the little niceties of dress at

THE TOGGERY SHOP, 291 Main Street.

Full Dress Accessories to the minutest detail.

HOUSE COATS AND BATH ROBES, WAISTCOATS.

Bedtime Clothing of every description.

Shirts fit to come from a Custom Maker, and an endless line of everything for men at

The Toggery Shop

291 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

The Broadway Store

Open Evenings Until Christmas

JAP CHINA TOYS GAMES

The Broadway Store, Opposite the Y. M. C. A.

GIFTS FOR MEN

That are practical, are in great numbers including Thermos Bottles, Gillette Autoprop, Federal and Gem Safety Razors, Military Hair Brushes.

If it is cigars you wish, we have them in great variety. It is a stock of the comic paper humorists, that "fond wife never picks out anything but the worst brand of cigars for her husband." This may be true if the bargain counter is hunted for cigars. If left to our pharmacy to select a good box of cigars for Mr. or Mrs. Xmas, the latter should find no reason to complain of the smoke that makes his Christmas merry.

Packed in boxes of 12, 25, 50 and 100.

EROU, The Progressive Drugist, OPP. CHELSEA BANK.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Saturday, Dec. 21, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Trolley men are prepared for a long and busy day.

Fifty printed calling cards for 25 cents at The Bulletin office—adv.

Some of the sermons tomorrow will have reference to Forefathers' day.

Food and apron sale at Buckingham Memorial by W. R. C. 2 to 5 p. m.—adv.

Local stores were never better stocked with supplies to tempt the Christmas appetite.

Fine, crisp winter weather Friday favored the holiday trippers and returning college students.

Tonight, basketball at Y. M. C. A., Laurel Hill vs. Colchester. Adm. 15c.—adv.

At Torrington, St. Francis' T. A. and B. society has chosen as spiritual adviser Rev. J. H. King, a native of East Norwich.

Men's meeting, Y. M. C. A., Sunday, 2:15 p. m. Concert by Swan's orchestra—adv.

Some of the state D. A. R. chapters are including in their holiday Christmas boxes to southern missionary colleges.

Go to Miss Clapp's for late Xmas buying: order pies, cake, plum pudding at Woman's Exchange—adv.

All about the state assessors are sent out notices to owners of automobiles who have neglected to enter their ownership of cars on their tax lists.

The Pawtucket Times of Wednesday contains a poem by C. C. Cooke, an Associated Press telegraph operator, formerly of this city, entitled Christmas Day.

Try Grover & Herlick Co. this year for the Xmas candy for socials and church entertainments—adv.

Norwich is going to do some grape eating during the holidays. A local wholesaler unloaded a car of 5,000 baskets from Penn Yan, N. Y., Friday for distribution.

Miss Ethel Potter, daughter of Mrs. Susan Potter, of New London, returned Friday from South Willington, where she teaches, to spend the holiday at her home.

The Sidney E. Hawley association, in which prominent republicans are interested, will have a dinner at the Royal James inn, Norwalk's newest hotel, on Jan. 2.

Grover & Herlick Co. want orders for Xmas candy for fairs, socials and church entertainments—adv.

The building fund for St. Agnes' home for foundlings, to be located in Hartford, now amounts to $18,469.83, according to the report in the Catholic Transcript.

Farmers are hoping that, with brooks and springs filled with the week's rain, they may begin to show improvement so there need not be shortage of cold weather suddenly set in.

Relatives and friends of Michael H. Donahue attended a month's mind requiem high mass for the repose of his soul, celebrated in St. Patrick's church Friday by Rev. J. H. Broderick.

At the Christmas Sunday services in the Second Congregational church, New London, Miss Pearl Jackson of Norwich will sing the soprano solo, "O, Jerusalem, Pearl About Thee."

At a recent meeting of the society for the increase of the ministry in the Episcopal diocese of Connecticut, Rev. Storrs O. Seymour of Litchfield, formerly of Norwich, was re-elected recording secretary.

Eugene Maynard has completed his new carriage and blacksmith shop at Lebanon Center and will move his carriage business to the new building, T. J. Nagle is helping him in his business.

At the Central Baptist church Sunday morning Rev. P. C. Wright will speak upon "The Unpardonable Gift." His evening theme will be "Star-Med Men." Special music at both services—adv.

Lester Bennett, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, of East Lyme, had a narrow escape from drowning the other day while skating. He owed his life to the prompt action of a crew of a passing trolley car.

Sunday morning at the Methodist church Rev. J. H. Newland, D. D., of New York, preached an impressive and persuasive sermon from the text "How can we win the world's soul in a strange land."—Rockville Journal.

Thomas J. Brown, P. M., of Packard, assisted by O. O. the says. The finders gravesites in Volunton Wednesday, marking the graves of James D. Hoyt and Albert C. Babcock, making 134 stones that Mr. Brown has set over soldiers' graves.

Xmas bonanzas, the kind that last Jerusalem cherries, finest in the city, fruitcakes and cut flowers. Funeral orders artistically arranged. Hunt's Greenhouses, next to Backus hospital. Telephone 1130.—adv.

Thursday in the Church of the Messiah, New York, Walton Ferguson, Jr., of Stamford, Conn., was married to Miss Dorothy Herron Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Taylor, were married by Rev. Dr. St. Clair Hester. Mr. Ferguson was divorced in June, 1911.

A table of allowances to meet the new package law has been prepared by H. F. Potter, dairy and food commissioner and E. E. Burdett, secretary of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment station, and in little pamphlets, secured by applying to the dairy and food commissioner.

FINGERLING BASS.

About 300 of the fish were placed in Gardner Lake Friday afternoon.

Straight from the U. S. fish hatchery at Alton, Ill., a consignment of bass fingerlings, 200 to 300 in number, was received here Friday afternoon and taken at once to Gardner Lake, where they were released for the purpose of restocking that sheet of water, which furnishes so much sport for the fishermen in season. The fingerlings came in response to an application made for them by John M. Lee, Jr., when he arrived from Watkinson of the A. C. Swan company did his part in the interests of sport by arranging for an automobile in which the fish were hurried to the lake and released as soon as possible after their arrival here.

G. W. Guard to Speak.

A men's meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, which will be preceded by a concert by Swan's orchestra.

W. G. Haselden will render several solos and there will be violin selections by Frank Benson. The speaker of the afternoon will be George W. Guard.

A woman wine dealer in France is said to earn nearly $25,000 a year, and her services are in great demand.

PERSONAL

Miss Grace Knapp has returned to Noank from a visit in Norwich.

George Craft has returned to Central Village from a stay in Norwich.

Mrs. Andrew J. Wholey of Norwich was a recent visitor in Central Village.

Patrick Sullivan, Jr., of Waterbury is visiting at his home on Summit street.

The Misses Ida Carter and Kathryn McMahon of Hanover spent Friday in Norwich.

Frank Nirkoska is visiting the Nirkoska family of Federal street, New London.

Mrs. Panny Darrow of Niantic has been spending several weeks in Unassville.

Miss Blanche V. Smith will spend her vacation in Boston with friends and relatives.

Patrick J. O'Connor of Providence is visiting his father, John O'Connor of High street.

Miss Grace Chapman of Albany's Post has returned from a visit to friends in Norwich.

L. D. Ashbey and Miss Eva Ashbey of Noank were callers on relatives in Norwich this week.

John A. Shugrue has accepted a position as head waiter at the Highland house, Springfield.

Miss Lucy Palmer and Mrs. J. B. Coon of Groton attended the Pomona grange meeting in Norwich.

John Oakes has returned to his home in Norwich, after visiting his sister, Mrs. M. McMahon of Hanover.

Miss Edmonds of Griswold is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schofield of Montville Center.

A. F. Beckwith of Canada, who is employed by the Frederickson company, is spending a few days in this city.

Clayton M. Gager of the Sheffield Scientific school, Yale university, is passing the recess at his home in this city.

John Stanton of Mystic was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager, Sr., of East Grotto Plain on Friday.

Earle L. Sparks left Friday for Elgin, Ill., where he will make his home with his brother, Merton E. formerly of Norwich.

Miss Fournier of Norwich was a recent visitor at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Turcott, in Albany.

Mrs. Edward Hoffman and Elizabeth Hoffman of North Sterling are spending the Christmas holidays in Norwich, after which they will go to Maryland.

Patrick Bray, Jr., Miss Catherine Bray and Miss Catherine McNeerney returned from a trip to New York, where they attended the funeral of Michael Kelly.

George W. Packard and Edward Temple, who have been in charge of the copper work on the administration building at the Norwich Insane hospital, have completed the job and leave today for Waterbury.

MRS. LOUISA M. PARKER

BEYOND REACH OF LAW.

Principal in Watt Case, Under $5,000 Bonds for Charge of Homicide, Died Friday Night—Nervous Breakdown Followed Her Arrest.

Death Friday evening removed one of the principals of a case which has attracted much attention in the local courts, when Mrs. Louisa M. Parker, aged 57, died at her home on Taylor avenue, as a result of a nervous breakdown which was caused by the case. Mrs. Parker was bound over to the superior court under bonds of $5,000 on a charge of homicide, following the death of Miss Agnes Watt of Montville, following a criminal operation alleged to have been performed by Mrs. Parker.

From the time of her arrest on Oct. 5, Mrs. Parker had been in a hysterical condition which brought on coma during the three or four days and Friday morning went into a state of coma, from which she failed to regain consciousness. She was taken to the hospital, where she died at 10 o'clock.

N. P. Smith, who said that her death was purely the result of her nervous condition, at the time of her arrest her size was given as 57. R. M. Douglass was the attorney for the accused.

She had been before the courts on a similar charge previously. In 1905 she was charged with having procured a criminal operation on a woman, and after considerable litigation she was allowed to settle the case by payment of a fine.

Mrs. Parker's death may affect the disposition of the cases of the two men who were arrested on the same charge.

SCHOOL SITE SEQUESTERED.

An Acre of Land on the Isaac Geer Farm Purchased for $250.

Since the schoolhouse of the Fourth district of the town of Preston was destroyed in the fire at Postquam, active efforts have been made and a number of meetings held in regard to the site for a new schoolhouse. A number of sites have been discussed, and that on the Isaac Geer farm was favored by the appraisers, who were appointed to look over the site.

L. Case, S. E. Holdridge and Charles P. Bowdell had a meeting on Friday at the home of Mr. Bowdell, where the site of the new schoolhouse was discussed. The Isaac Geer farm was purchased on the Geer farm from C. D. Geer for the sum of $250. The papers were made out and signed Friday.

Polishers' Union Gave Dance.

A pleasant time was enjoyed by the 150 couples who attended the dance conducted by the Polishers' union, local No. 169, in Cadillac hall Thursday evening. The Cadillac orchestra furnished music. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Thomas Brennan, Francis Clish, James Wall, Thomas Kelly, Joseph Quinn, Richard Bedard, David Clark and John Callahan.

Beads Made from Rose Petals.

Miss E. Louise Twomb has something of a novelty to this part of the country in a string of California rose beads which she received a short time ago from her cousin Miss Alpha Musker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Twomb. The beads are black and are made of compressed rose petals retaining the odor of the rose.

Sickness at County Home.

Nearly half the children at the county home have been sick during the past week with the diphtheria. Some have been seriously ill, but many of those affected have been confined to their beds.

Wild Turkeys for Christmas.

Patrick Sullivan of Summit street has received two handsome wild turkeys for his Christmas dinner from his son, T. F. Sullivan of Greenfield, South Carolina.

Historic Lebanon And Gov. Trumbull

Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., Told of the Revolutionary Days at Christmas Campfire of Sedgwick Post—The War Office in the Country Store Visited by Washington and Many Others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address was given in the country store, which was visited by Washington and many others.

The Christmas campfire of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., held Friday evening in Buckingham Memorial, proved a most enjoyable affair for the large number present, among whom were members of the Women's Relief corps, Citizens corps, Sons of Veterans, and Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as a big representation of the Grand Army. The address of the evening was given by Rev. George W. Huntington of Newburgh, N. Y., a member of Sedgwick post, Commander of the local post, and a member of the Grand Army. The address